Clubbed to Death

HARLSTON, Pa., October 16.—Between 8 and 9 o'cleck last night a terrible double tragedy was committed at Seybertsville, a small village nine miles from here. Four tramps entered a small house some dis-tance back from the main road, in which lived two bachelor brothers, John and Wm. Kester, aged respectively fifty and fiftyfour years, and demanded a large sum of money which was known to be secreted in the house. The Kesters rigused to reveal where their money was fidden, and the tramps then bound them hand and foot and beat their brains out with a heavy club. After committing the murder they fled, and have not yet been arrested. The two brothers had lived in a frame shanty about one mile from Seybertville for thirty years. They gained a livelihood by cultivating a small patch of ground and doing odd jobs for the neighboring farmers, and by economy managed to accumulate several thousand dollars, which was generally supposed to be secreted in the house. With them lived John Kester, jr., an illegitimate son of the eider of the two brothers. When the young man returned to the house, about 9 o'clock last night, his was horrified on discovering the dead bodies of his father and uncle lying on the floor. He quickly alarmed the neighbors, who hurried to the scene of the tragedy and an examination showed that John had been shot through the head, and that William had been beaten to death with a heavy club, his head being horribly crushed by repeated blows. Several times vesterday four tramps were noticed lurking in the vicinity, and the police authorities say that they have convincing evidence that they are the parties who committee the crime. Search is being made for them. The drawers and trunks in the house had been ransacked, showing that the object of the murder was robbery, and it is supposed that the tramps had heard that the money was hidden in the house. Young Kesler says that the money was secreted outside the house, and that the murderers did not secure it. Kester, aged respectively fifty and fifty-four years, and demanded a large sum of

Almost a Riot.

COLUMBUS, C., October 16.—Shortly after noon to-day some rattle-brained persons-hung out an immense "bloody shirt" across the street in front of the Democratic headquarters. It bore the words, "New South,"
"New North," and "A New Deal; the Last of the Bloody Shirt." The shirt was an of the Bloody Shirt." The shirt was an immense affair. It was about twenty feet long and ten feet wide, with sleeves six feet long, Great daubsof red were spattered over the breast in initation of blood. At first the banner created a great deal of amusement, but about 3 o'clock a number of old soldiers went in a body to the headquarters and demanded in the name of the G. A. R. that the bloody emblem be taken down. As Chairman Fowell was not prosent at the time, no attention was paid to the request. A few minutes later a request was received from Governor Hoadly asking that the banner be taken down at once. Before this could be done, however, a large crowd had collected, and just as the janitor began to loosen the ropes a number of man rushed forward and, seizing the banner, carried it off. They brought it back in a few minutes, asturated with coal oil. It was then burned in front of the headquarters amid the shouts of those present to witness the movements. There were a number of persons in the crowd who seemed desirous of sacking the headquarters, and many threats were made, but the wise counsel of law shiding men of both parties prevailed and the crowd dispersed. nmense affair. The child screamed and extended its arms to its mother, who was beside herself with mental agony, but was powerless to reader assistance. The screams of the child, however, attracted the neighbors, who, with shotguns, pursued the eagle. The bird was meen to alight with its prey upon the roof of a barn a mile distant. Lifting up its head, with one powerful stroke it drove its beak into the child's head and then began its horrid feast. At the near approach of the neighbors, who were firing the first of the was men to allow the head and then began its horrid feasts. An Exploration of Alaska Heretofore Con sidered an Impossible Feat.

CHICAGO, October 15.—General Nelson A. Miles, who is in the city, received a telegram yesterday from Lieutenant Henry T. Allen, of the Second cavalry, stating that he had arrived safely at San Francisco, after his Alaska explorations, having com-pleted a journey through the regions of the far north, which, in the opinion of General pleted a journey through the regions of the far north, which, in the opinion of General Miles, excelled all explorations on the American continent since Lewis and Clark and the world's record since Liwingstone. Lieutenant Alien left Sitka last February and journeyed to the north of the Copper River, which he followed until he reached the Great Alaskan range of mountains. These he crossed on snowshoes to the head of the Tennah River, in itself a marvelous accomplishment. For 700 or 800 miles he followed the Tennah until it emptied into the Yukon, the greatriver of the north, to its mouth, a distance of 400 or 500 miles more. Upon the completion of his great journey Lieutenant Alien repaired to Fort Michel, on the Bering Strait, and returned on the steamer Corwin. The exploration of the Tennah and Yukon Rivers has been the ambition of explorers long before Alaska came Into possession of the United States, but the Russians failed each time it was attempted. Since then several explorations by American officers have ended in failure, until among the army officers on the Pacific coast the feat came to be considered well nigh impossible. Lieutenent Allen's companions were a sergeant and an officer of the Signal corps, together with Indians whom he persuaded to join him.

HE COULDN'T LET GO.

An Amusing Scene Caused by a Peculiar Current of Electricity.

CRICAGO, ILL. October 15 .- An electric light wire at the corner of State and Harriso streets became disconnected last night and connected its currents with sn iron pillar. This in turn passed the electric fluid along a hand-railing, and, returning by another railing, made a complete circuit. A colored man happened along. He leaned wearily against the railing, and then bristled up with energy. His arms were warped around the railing and his body was bent like an italic letter S. He had no idea what was the matter with him, and, being unable to let go his bold, called loudly that he was dying. A dozen men ran to his assistance, and were soon experiencing the tingling effect of the electricity. Some laughed, others cried and many called for help. Afcrowd soon gathered, and a few additional victims were hanging to the hand-railing. Finally the crowd numbered nearly five hundred persons. Cars were stopped and no one could get past. A police wagon arrived just as an enterprising man had discovered the cause of the trouble and released the victims. The police dispersed the crowd, everybody laughed and no one was arrested. railing, made a complete circuit. A colored

A Dreadful Sight. FARGO, DAK., October 14.-The news has just reached here that the wife and child of Seth Staunton perished in a prairie fire in Barnes County, thirty miles from here Saturday. The fire started from a thresh ing-machine on the Lessar farm while the men had left it for dinner. Mr. Staunton, who was some distance from his house, two miles from the origin of the fire, was bare-ly able to reach there before the flames, ly able to reach there before the flames, and thought it too late to save the buildings. He took one little child under each arm and told his wife to follow with the oldest one. Soon looking back, he saw his wife and child enveloped in flames. Mrs. Staunton perished there, and the child was so badly burned that it died the next day. The fire parted at the house and left it untouched. A few thousand bushels of wheat and a barn or two burned. At the same time another fire a few miles west destroyed some fifteen thousand bushels of wheat on the farm of N. V. Townley, and the house and buildings of Ed. C. Booth and much other property of other parties. The total losses from fire in Barnes County this season are put at $100,000.

VIRGINIA EARTHQUAKE.

Houses Rocked as in a Great Stermple Frightened.

WASHINGTON, October 14.-Dispatcher from various points in Virginia confirm the reports of an earthquake shock Friday night. A letter from Charlottesville says: "Intelligence from Louisa, Fluvanna, Campbell, and from every district of this county, concurs in placing the time of the first shock at half-past II o'clock r. s. The shock was evidently greater here than at any other point from which information has been received. In Charlottesville houses rocked as in a great storm; windows, stoves and dishes rattled furiously, vases were shaken from mantels in some cases, and everything generally so well shaken that people were aroused from their slumbers and sprang out of bed and ran to the windows to see what was wrong. One gentleman, who had not retired, walked across his floor during the quaking, and avers that his house rocked so violently that he experienced the same difficulty that one has in walking on the cars while they are in motion. The shocks, for there were two, were accompanied by a rumbling noise which could be h ard for some time after the quaking ceased, and which was mistaken by some for thunder. A great many people were very badly frightened." At Warrenton the shock was distinctly felt. It wakened persons from their sleep and rattled windows. Three distinct shocks were felt in Lynchburg between II and 12 o'clock Friday night. A loud rumbling sound preceded each shock. The direction of the disturbance was due north and south. The shock was also felt in certain parts of Richmond, but the vibrations were very slight. Advices from other points west and south of Richmond report slight shocks. At Stanton the shock was very perceptible, continuing over half a mimute. reports of an earthquake shock Friday night. A letter from Charlottesville says:

Danger of Eating Raw Ham.

A few months ago a woman died in Berlin of trichinosis. The case has just been brought before the courts, and during the trial some interesting facts regarding the nature and effects of this disease were brought to light. As usual, the disease was caused by the reckless German custom of eating raw ham. The ham in this case was bought of a man who had previously sold several pigs afflicted with this disease, his farm be-ing situated near a place infested with rats, which are known to be generally infected with trichinosis. Not only the woman who died but all the memb her family showed symptoms of the dis-ease-vomiting, pain in the muscles, general exhaustion, swelling of the face, etc.; but they all recovered under careful treatment, while some other persons who partook of the ham escaped altogether. The defendant urged that the woman's death was not caused by trichinosis, but by the morphine which she was in the habit of using; and though it was proved that her death was directly caused by trichinosis, yet this fact was allowed as a mitigating circumstance and the vender of the ham condemned to only fourteen days' im-prisonment. -N. Y. Post.

The Increase of Insanity.

The Increase of Insanity.

Boston supports 800 insane, says Mr. T.
B. Sanborn, not 75 of whom will recover!
This is frightful! Insanity has increased 40 per cent in a decade and most of the cases are incurable. Whatever the individual cause may be, the fact remains that Uric Acid blood sets the brain on fire, destroys its tissues, and then comes some form of fatal lunacy.

Nothing is so pitiable as a mind diseased. Most brain troubles begin in the stomach; then if the blood is filled with uric acid, caused by failure of kidney action, and the consequent destruction of the blood life-albumen—you have the fuel and the fame and a brain in full blaze as when one raves, or in slow combustion, as in milder forms of insanity. Rev. E. D. Hopkins, of St. Johnsbury, Vt., a few years ago was confined in an asylum. He took a terrible cold while aiding in putting out a fire in a neighbor's burning house, and for twenty-five years that cold was slowly filling his blood with uric acid and finally the deadly work was done. The case looked hopeless but he happily used Warner's safe cure and recovered. That was three years ago and having riiden his blood of all surplus uric acid, he has remained well until this day.

It is indeed a terrible thing to lose one's day.

It is indeed a terrible thing to lose one's mind, but it is a more terrible thing to suffer such a condition when it can be so easily prevented.
